Evil is real. It is all around us, and when God's people don't fight evil, there is tremendous suffering in this world. God hasn't called us to exist. He has called us to service -- to spiritual combat. Whether male or female, young or old, weak or strong, we who have faith in Christ have been saved to do the good works that God has prepared for us to do. Christian Combat in Modern America explains the reality of evil, the consequences of not fighting, the essence of spiritual combat, and what it's like to live life in a spiritual war. More than just a theoretical discussion, this book provides practical advice about how to get involved on six of the most significant spiritual battlegrounds in American culture. We are not designed to sit, saved and smiling, eating bon-bons and watching re-runs of Survivor. This book is for those who want to LIVE the adventurous abundant life and bring Christ to a dying world. Join the fight.
