The Diary of the Gay Casanova John Newhouse

We, the publishers of The Diary Of The Gay Casanova, would like to make the following comments. Firstly: the diary of John Newhouse was accidentally discovered in an empty apartment in London, and what is written in this book is fact not fiction. Secondly: the diary was written in extensive detail, and the minimum of artistic licence has been used by the ghost-writer whom we employed to turn the diary into a book. Thirdly, the diary detailed such a large part of John Newhouse's life, that the following pages barely cover a third of what this young man wrote.
