Grassy Narrows (River of Lakes Book 3) Carl Nordgren

In Grassy Narrows, the final novel of the River of Lakes Trilogy, the summer of '69 finds new characters fighting old battles, familiar characters taking on new names, and life at the Great Lodge struggling to recover from old wounds. The tragedy of the Vietnam War shapes characters' lives, the Moon Landing enlivens the ancient Ojibway stories, and a new First Nations political movement is started at Grassy Narrows Reserve. The dreams of Irish and Indians once again warn of a great threat to life on the River, a threat that could finally bring an end to this wilderness paradise, a threat that calls for heroic actions.
