Paisajes de la metrópoli de la muerte: Reflexiones sobre la memoria y la imaginación (Spanish Edition) Otto Dov Kulka

De niño, el prestigioso historiador Otto Dov Kulka fue enviado junto con su familia al gueto de Theresienstadt, y más tarde a Auschwitz. Tras sobrevivir al horror, ha pasado gran parte de su vida estudiando el nazismo y el Holocausto, pero siempre como una disciplina que exigía la mayor objetividad, dejando a un lado su propia historia personal. Sin embargo, durante ese tiempo los recuerdos de su infancia han permanecido alojados en su memoria, imágenes y pensamientos de los que ha sido incapaz de desprenderse. Hasta hoy. El extraordinario resultado son estas memorias profundamente conmovedoras, el testimonio poderoso y valiente de un hombre que ha querido entender su pasado y, con ello, nuestra historia.
