The urge to become a beacon of hope for those terrified by the present times has encouraged the author to share the secret research that so many people have spoken about but which has been restricted to famous but never fully understood occult texts.

The lessons of Yogananda, Ramacharaka and Gurdjieff are accessible to whoever has a true thirst for knowledge. The text is written in a poetic language that follows the historical tradition of Italian poetry.

The Prophecy of the Fourth anticipates and clarifies the spread of Satanism and offers a clear answer to all those waiting for words of hope, through myths, parables and stories of the time of Revelation. The book is illustrated in black and white.
