The woman standing in Rafe Blackstock's office was beautiful—unforgettably beautiful—and desperate for his help. But this wasn't just another client who needed a private investigator. This was the only woman he'd ever loved—the one who'd walked away from him without a backward glance, so many years ago....

Kit Foley's troubled younger sister was missing, and she was willing to do anything to find her—even turn to the man she'd spent such a long time trying to forget. But their search for answers was proving to be even more dangerous than she'd feared—because it meant facing the truth of a love that had never died....
