Vance is a Ramen noodle snob, ladies man, and an assassin. He was recruited by the Russian mob weeks before graduating college. He never planned his life to turn out like this. After ten years he is sent to his home town for a clean up job and realizes there is another life he could have. He quits his job, but his job isn't the kind that you can walk away from. The Russian mob is determined to have Vance retired permanently and he reminds them why he was recruited to begin with.
