Cordero de Dios: El caso Candela (Spanish Edition) Candelaria Schamun

"Cordero de Dios es el tercer título de FICCIONES REALES, la nueva colección de Marea de crónicas latinas dirigida por el periodista y escritor Cristian Alarcón. Candelaria Schamun revela la trama oculta detrás del crimen que conmovió al país a través de una profunda investigación y una prosa impactante. Candelaria Schamun aceptó una misión difícil: investigar y narrar la trastienda de un crimen aún no resuelto, el de la niña Candela Sol Rodríguez. Entre la novela negra y la crónica urgente, Schamun se desplaza por un Conurbano sórdido y marginal. En la tradición walshiana de un periodismo comprometido, con valiente sensibilidad, la cronista reconstruye los últimos días de la niña desaparecida y luego asesinada, su particular genealogía familiar, el mundo de transas, chorros y policías corruptos en el que se crió y en el que murió asfixiada, envuelta en misterios. Candelaria Schamun nació el 5 de octubre de 1981 en La Plata. Es periodista desde 2008. Trabajó como cronista en la sección Policiales del diario Crítica y en la sección Sociedad del diario Clarín. Actualmente trabaja como productora en el canal de noticias C5N. En 2008 ganó el premio Creativa Argentina, otorgado por el círculo de creativos argentinos, por su página web Viajé como el orto, un sitio de denuncias al transporte público que fue visitado por más de trescientas mil personas. Participó de los talleres de crónica de Cristian Alarcón, Pablo Ramos y Josefina Licitra. Colaboró en la investigación periodística del libro Pasiones que matan, de Rodolfo Palacios."
