Solitary Shifters (3 Book Series) Summer Devon

From Book 1:

He thought he had nothing left to lose...until he lost his heart.

Solitary Shifters, Book 1

Jake will be forever grateful to the man who rescued him and brought him to an animal preserve to live. It's the perfect home for a bander, a type of shifter known to be notoriously taciturn. Now Jake runs the place, and he's content with the hard truth that he'll always be alone.

Summer visitors are a necessary evil. And Vaughn Prentiss is exactly the sort of tourist that gets on Jake's last nerve. A happy-go-lucky, carefree, trust-fund baby.

Vaughn can't fathom why Jake seems to enjoy insulting him for no reason. Yet he's attracted to the man's gruff kindness with the preserve's youthful workers. And it hasn't escaped his notice that Jake is something special. Something not quite human.

When Vaughn discovers his financial manager has absconded with the family fortune, Jake acts on impulse to offer him a job, and wonders if he'll live to regret it. It's hard enough to keep his shifter nature private, much less keep his paws off his newest employee...a man Jake is coming to admire. If only he could be sure, when danger reveals the truth of what he is, if Vaughn will stay by his side—or run.

Warning: Contains a sexy "pretty boy" who's smarter than he looks and a grouchy shapeshifter who can't resist strong hands and a wicked tongue. Prepare yourself. This book is anything but tame.
