the Trout Diaries: A Year of Fly Fishing in New Zealand Derek Grzelewski

The Trout Diaries contains a wealth of captivating and often amusing anecdotes as well as useful technical information making it a true angler's companion, both literary and practical.

With disarming honesty and freshness, Derek Grzelewski has written a highly readable account of his year dedicated to fly-fishing in New Zealand, relating the highs and lows, and the intricacies and finesse, of pursuing trout in the wild places and pristine waters he loves so much. The thrill of close encounters with this elusive quarry is mirrored by the pleasure he takes in the companionship of his dogs, his friends and the many others he happens across in, often secret, fly-fishing locations.
