Hospital Posadas (Spanish Edition) Jorge Consiglio

Entretejando el presente con el pasado, Jorge Consiglio construye una novela que se detiene en eso que evidencia las marcas que dejó la dictadura militar de los años setenta.

El narrador, sumido en una especie de abulia, fluctúa entre la literatura y su trabajo como vendedor de instrumental médico, atento a todo lo que puede ser narrado en un cuento –las historias pueden llegar de los lugares más insólitos–. Su presente transcurre al ritmo de la inexplicable demolición del petit hotel de fines del siglo XIX que tiene frente a su ventana. Y el pasado, a la luz de la toma del Hospital Posadas por los militares en el 76 para convertirlo en un centro de violencia y horror. Las esquirlas de ese pasado todavía punzan a principios de los ochenta, donde están Ángela, la primera novia del narrador, y Cardozo, el por entonces marido de la hermana de Ángela, un tipo misterioso, ex policía o ex militar, que luego de años desocupado, terminará involucrado en la dudosa investigación del secuestro de un importante empresario. Una novela profunda y brillante, de uno de los escritores más premiados de la literatura argentina contemporánea, donde se conjugan el placer de la mirada, la imaginación y la inevitable deconstrucción del pasado.
