Nuevas subjetividades (G) (Spanish Edition) María Teresa Vera Rojas

Nuevas subjetividades/sexualidades literarias reflexiona acerca de las formas de reconocimiento del yo a partir de las lógicas lúdicas del deseo y de la inestabilidad de las identidades sexuales. Los ensayos contenidos en este libro dan cuenta de la emergencia de sexualidades disidentes y de cuerpos indisciplinados en los que se reconocen otras y nuevas formas de subjetividades fluidas, que desestabilizan los esencialismos binarios responsables de fijar el sujeto a su sexualidad. En correspondencia con los cuestionamientos que sostienen la teoría queer, el posfeminismo y los estudios de género, estos ensayos desarticulan el sentido unitario y coercitivo de las identidades sexuales, al desvelar los procesos de resistencia que se producen en las mismas fisuras que existen dentro de las categorías discursivas del poder. El propósito de este volumen es el de reconocer las modalidades de creación de otras/nuevas subjetividades, cuyos cuerpos e individualidades se definen a partir de las capacidades creativas del deseo. Se parte, para eso, de discusiones acerca del lugar del feminismo en la problematización de las identidades sexuales, así como de las indagaciones en las estrategias que desnaturalizan las representaciones de la sexualidad en la narrativa, la poesía, el cine, las prácticas artísticas y los medios de comunicación.
