The Everlasting Season Daniel J. Brommer

What if you could make a deal with God in order to be the very best at the one thing you truly loved? That's exactly what Darren 'Cam' Cameron does. Darren loves football and always dreamed of being something special, being someone nobody would ever forget. He wanted to be known as the best player to play the game, even after he was gone. So he made a deal with God to be the best. But there was a catch: he had to live his life perfectly. While Darren gets everything he could possibly dream for in his high school football career setting football records and gaining a full ride to his dream school, Florida State he still struggles with the temptations that come along with high school and upholding his end of the deal. Things become even harder when he tries to muster the courage to tell his longtime friend he's in love with her and when the team loses one of their best players. Darren must step up and lead his friends and teammates to the state championship game. But as Darren's senior season comes to a close and he is recognized as the best football player in the country, he finds himself questioning whether it was right or wrong to make this deal with God. His face and story is in every major sports magazine, but he wonders if the cost of making this deal is too much for him to bear and how much longer he can continue living in secrecy. Join Darren and his teammates and find out if there's victory in The Everlasting Season. Author Daniel J. Brommer is currently a student studying sports management.
