“Pelham, smell ‘em. Pelham, smell ‘em.” Kids can be so mean. They had been chanting that phrase since kindergarten. Even at five years old Pelham was not a cool kid, and her classmates never let her forget it. She wasn’t good at school, or sports, and definitely not good at talking with boys. That was all before she found the magic mirror that seemed an answer to her prayers. Day after day after day her wishes came true, but at what price? Was she living a dream, or was she wishing herself into a nightmare? The mirror could reveal her heart’s desire, but would she abuse the power before it could transform her into what she always wanted to be...The Pretty Girl?
