In First Look and Find: My Friends Tigger & Pooh, Super Sleuths, Winnie the Pooh, Tigger, and their friend Darby are the Super Sleuths. They help their pals at Pooh's Corner find things that have been lost, such as Rabbit's rake. Best of all, young readers can join in the search.

Based on the popular Disney characters first developed by A.A. Milne, this Look and Find book for toddlers presents fascinating, action-packed scenes that will keep young children busy. Each two-page spread includes a scenario and provides an illustrated list of items for your child to find. Scenarios include:

The Changing Tree, where the Super Sleuths meet to put on their sleuthing gear which is scattered about for readers to find

Rabbit's garden, where kids can search for other gardening tools besides the missing rake

The Big Tree, where many items are waiting to be found

Pooh's house, where children can help the Super Sleuths by pointing out things to look in, under, or around

The bridge, where there are many characters to identify whom the Sleuths can interview for clues

Roo's play area, where readers search for the rake, as well as Roo's toys

The picnic table at Rabbit's house, where the friends dine using utensils that youngsters can search for

This book will hold toddlers interest while they:

Search, point, and match

Make comparisons

Discover concepts such as size, shape, and color

Follow simple directions

Read a book alone

Additional learning ideas are included for parents to use in working with their children on:

Counting

Categorizing
