Flirting, first love, fighting for your life. All the things that represent a spectacular fall in Crimson Cove, named after the sight one sees when the trees all turn red in the crisp autumn air. When school starts and the events of the summer no one is likely to forget haven't been solved, the five girls decide to take matters into their own hands. But the problem with lifting stones to find the secrets hidden under them is that you never can tell just what lies beneath. For the five unlikely friends, what lies beneath involves each and every one of them. And as the story twists and turns, they start to see they are each connected to the murder and the disappearance still rocking the small sea side community. Don't miss the exciting second book in The Crimson Cove Mysteries.
