One life hangs on the thread of her imagination...

Legends, Book 2: Sequel to the award-winning Beaudry's Ghost.

Troy Brannon is a ghost with no time for heaven. Thanks to his well-intentioned meddling, he's got a missing soul on his hands. Fortunately he's learned a skill no well-behaved spirit should have—the ability to zip through time and space.

A side trip to revive a drowning woman should've been simple. But the moment he locks lips with Carey Magennis, she generates an inner fire he's never felt before, alive or dead—and his ability to time travel disappears.

When the rising tide closes over Carey's head, it's the end—but only of life as she knows it. She wakes up haunted by the idea she no longer fits in, and by the sexy, lion-hearted ghost of the man who saved her. No one wants to hear about the strange things that have been happening to her since her near-death experience, least of all her image-conscious fiancé.

Troy realizes Carey accidentally stole his gift—and she has no idea the danger she's in. Wherever her imagination takes her, she goes with it. Literally. Plus, that fiancé of hers has an agenda that doesn't include her survival.

Saving her will be as dangerous to his mission as she is to his heart.
