From Book 1:

Everyone is familiar with the astute and eccentric detective Sherlock Holmes, but only a few people know that his creator, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, was far from inferior to his pipe-smoking ace detective. Doyle once worked as a ship's doctor and fought in the Second Boer War in South Africa. He was interested in mysticism and spiritualism and undertook numerous trips on the trail of the occult.

In Raimon Weber's breathtaking series The Secret Files of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the world-famous author himself becomes the detective. In each of the five episodes, Doyle encounters a horrific world that defies the imagination. His first case takes him to a dark, almost forgotten lake in Scotland where the Monster of Tyron Castle awaits him...
