El enigma de la luz (El Ojo del Tiempo) (Spanish Edition) Cees Nooteboom

Cees Nooteboom recorre algunos museos buscando capturar en las obras de los grandes pintores aquello que alimenta nuestra alma con formas y colores: la belleza. En este libro el lector tiene el privilegio de intuir, gracias al diálogo permanente que nuestro especial guía mantiene consigo mismo, el enigma que subyace en toda obra artística. Nooteboom no es un historiador del arte ni pretende serlo. Él se deja llevar por la imaginación, no ofrece respuestas sino que plantea interrogantes. A través de los ojos del artista-escritor contemplamos, entre otras, las imágenes alegóricas medievales, los estudios de la naturaleza de Leonardo da Vinci, los autorretratos de Aert de Gelder o de Rembrandt, los interiores de Vermeer, los paisajes de Bruegel, los rostros sin ojos de De Chirico, la pasión por la masa geométrica de Piero della Francesca o las soledades de Hopper. Y finalmente, sin apenas darnos cuenta, empezamos a ver los cuadros como si fueran personas.
