It may seem like hell being incarcerated, but try to remember, it can always be worse. At least we can still make half-edible food. That's right, and if you've never tried it, this book might just help you cope with hard times through better cuisine. Most, if not all, chow halls serve straight garbage to us daily. With a little money on your books, or a "sugar daddy," you can eat better in your cell. Okay, okay, lets not get carried away
