Lloyd Dutton wasn't ready to be a father and he certainly wasn't ready to become a single parent. When his wife died suddenly, he was left with one option: find a new bride.

When Millie Hoff's sister Morgan accidentally became pregnant Millie knew what she had to do. Giving up the promise of marriage as a mail order bride to her sister is the only way to ensure that Morgan and her child will be cared for. For Millie that means letting go of a man she was falling in love with, but she would do anything for her sister.

When tragedy strikes on their trip out West, Millie is left alone to take the place of her sister as Lloyd's bride once again. How will she find the words to tell him of their plans to trick him? Can he learn to forgive Millie? Will their attraction, begun long before Morgan's tragic death, survive the unknown and fear in Lloyd's heart?
