Something Else (The Three Graces Book 1) Nia Farrell

Grace Murphy is the local psychic medium who dreams of her soulmates – the two men she reincarnates with time and again. While reading at an Irish festival, she meets Nicolas White, a bisexual American Indian musician. A shaman with visions of his own, Nico recognizes Grace from his last sweat lodge as the red-haired woman in the south. Now that they're found each other, surely the third one will come soon.

Six months later they meet J.T. Santiago, an ex-Navy SEAL and former cage fighter who owns a gym and teaches mixed martial arts. J.T. is a dominant, but he's never had a male submissive and Grace and Nico are a package deal. It's a learning curve for all of them, with J.T.'s initiation into MMF and MM relations and Grace's introduction to BDSM. With Grace's yin, J.T.'s yang, and Nico's center balance, the three of them come together as far as J.T.'s PTSD will allow, but forging a future means healing the past, however painful it might be.
