Douglas Scott finds nothing more exciting than doing what he shouldn't. So when he discovers an irresistibly devilish ancient royal decree he's determined to put it to good use. After all, opening the country's only legal brothel right under his best friend's nose is just the latest in a list of tricks he's pulled – and he always comes out on top!

But the further Douglas gets into the oldest profession, the more he realises what a complicated game it is to play. And when an attempted murder wreaks havoc on Toplingham Manor, he wonders if he might just have made the biggest mistake of his life...

'...not your usual romantic comedy... If you fancy your love stories racy, with a few drops of murder attempts, peppered with serious issues such as prostitution and hemmed with historical facts: this is your book.' - Chick Lit Reviews and News

'...a very funny story... If you want to read a story with a real plot, and characters that have that real feel to them, and still have some nice fluffiness on the pages of your read, you should definitely pick up Dirty Minds. It was a truly enjoyable read, and I can only recommend it!' - (un)Conventional Bookviews on Dirty Minds
