Ouro (Portuguese Edition) Chris Cleave

Kate e Zoe se conheceram aos 19 anos, nas eliminatórias de um programa para jovens talentos do ciclismo de elite — um esporte que exige foco e comprometimento. Após mais de uma década, aos 32 anos, elas se preparam para enfrentar a última e mais grandiosa prova de suas vidas: os Jogos Olímpicos de Londres, em 2012.

Amigas e também grandes rivais, Kate e Zoe são atletas no topo do ranking, lutando para vencer a competição mais importante do mundo. Com vidas marcadas pela tragédia, cada uma delas tem muito a perder, e as duas se veem diante do desafio de optar entre a família e a glória no esporte.

Contada como somente Chris Cleave é capaz, Ouro é uma história sobre os limites da resistência humana, tanto física quanto emocional, sobre maternidade e amor, e sobre o que nos permite, em nossas diferentes maneiras de agir, alcançar feitos memoráveis. Com grande humanidade, o autor de Pequena Abelha analisa as escolhas que são feitas quando a vida está em risco e tudo o que se ama está em jogo.

“Ouro retrata a determinação de atletas extraordinários em uma história sobre sacrifício. Suas vidas são tão entrelaçadas, tão complexas, que o resultado só pode ser surpreendente. Um livro fascinante, impossível de largar, que tem tudo para repetir o sucesso de Pequena Abelha.” Library Journal
