This book is the research result of the author's devotion into the research of administrative participation subjects for many years, basing on his doctoral dissertation. From the angel of administrative participation, this book argues the availability, advantages and disadvantages of administrative participation subjects participating in administrative procedures on individual forms, group forms, and organizational forms respectively. It also analyzes different meanings for administrative acts exerted by administrative counterparts and administrative related parties both as administrative participation subjects. On this basis, it argues the specific meaning and mechanism of administrative participation and rights of participation subjects, as well as the protection method and direction of the administrative law system.
